- Customer service experience is required, preferably within a student services environment;
- The ability to facilitate workshops, group discussions and presentations;
- Exceptional interpersonal skills and the ability to build relationships;
- An understanding of confidentiality and privacy, and the ability to work with and process confidential information with discretion and sensitivity;
- Proficiency with MS Office Suite (Outlook, Word, Excel, PowerPoint).

Relevant experience must demonstrate:

- An understanding of K-12 educational system;
- An understanding of respectful practices and protocols when working with Families, Elders and First Nations' communities;
- Lived knowledge of the kinds of experiences Biigtigong Nishnaabeg students have entering K-12 education system;
- Demonstrated ability to identify and respond to the needs of Biigtigong Nishnaabeg students, including transitional and developmental needs;
- Tact and sensitivity handling complex and critical student situations.

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Provides outreach and support services for Biigtigong Nishnaabeg students throughout their education and acts as a liaison between students and internal and external support services and resources;
- Assesses and identifies the additional needs for each student's circumstances and connects students to appropriate resources and supports;
- Acts as an advocate for Biigtigong Nishnaabeg students and facilitates a positive, respectful environment for both students and staff that is instrumental in breaking down stigmas and systemic barriers;
- Develops resources and tools to help Biigtigong Nishnaabeg students' education;
- Coordinates and facilitates sessions and events for students and parents;
- Consults with and makes recommendations to stakeholders on issues that affect Aboriginal student success and retention;
- Assisting with the development of proposals, conducting research, and gathering and preparation of supporting documents;
- Maintain database for BN membership students on and off reserve;
- Occasional travel to surrounding urban centers;
- Other duties as assigned.
